

Well, men, just when you thought your wife was through watching Hallmark movies, the Valentine movies have begun. May I give you some advice? Instead of griping and grumbling, just go with it. Get some hot chocolate and a blanket and snuggle up with your honey for a thrilling* two hours of romance.

Marriage needs romance. You must keep throwing logs on the fire to keep the house warm. One of the simplest ways to kindle the marriage fire is to do what won your spouse in the first place. You fell in love with them for some reason. If the fire is waning, go back to how it started. What made you fall in love the first time?

Men, we need to pursue our wives like we did when we were dating them. Don't take them for granted and treat them like an accomplished mission – like that deer head hanging on your wall or trophy in your closet. (Hopefully, though, you let your wife out in public!). Date your wife. Surprise her with gifts. Tell her you love her. Get to know her love language (words of affirmation, quality time, gifts, acts of service, physical touch) and start speaking it! Why not make plans right now to wow her this Valentine's Day? You don't have to spend a lot or even leave the house to do something nice. This year, Rebecca has made my job easy by requesting that I take the boys to Mom and then cook one of her favorite meals while we have a quiet night at home. We're both looking forward to that special night!

Ladies, I'm not letting you off the hook. Remember how you used to check yourself three times before your now husband picked you up for a date? Do that again! Let your husband know he is still special to you. Do those things you used to do that made him fall in love with you. Figure out his love language and start speaking it to him!

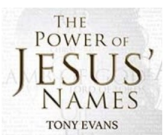

Throw some logs on the fire, stoke it a bit, and see what happens. I guarantee your marriage satisfaction will go up (even if it's already up!), and you'll be enjoying your best friend like never before!

*Ok, so maybe it isn't thrilling. But your wife will be thrilled that you're taking the time to be with her. A bonus: something I've learned – if you watch enough Hallmark, you earn the right to make fun of the movies or rewrite the script into a soap opera while watching! Rebecca now does it with me! (Of course, you may also pick up some romance ideas too!)

Home group locations are as follows:

1. Harry and Beth Ingalls, 139 Hidden Path, Pineville
2. Harold and Jane Roshto, 719 Post Oak Blvd., Alexandria
3. Danny and Debbie Creel, 1801 West Medalist, Pineville
4. Fred and Denyse Holt, 2506 Jackson St., Alexandria
5. Hershel and Jenny Corley, 12682 Mill Pond Rd. Deville

*Childcare will begin at 5:00 P.M.

Home group date are February 9, 16, 23, and March 8, 15, and 22.

Men's Breakfast Tuesday, February 11

Join us in the Fellowship Hall as we enjoy a hearty breakfast together as we hear a heart felt devotion to encourage us.

Women on Mission Thursday, February 13

We will have special guest speaker Sarah Smith, Pineville City Marshall. Join us as we show our appreciation to the Pineville City Marshall's Office and our local law enforcement. Bring three to four dozen home-baked cookies to our meeting and help us bag them up. The bags will be taken to the PPD for distribution.

Our February OCC Shoebox project is to bring soap and wash cloths to the meeting as we begin working on our 2020 goal of packing 250 Shoeboxes. We will be looking for you and we hope you will stay for Gumbo, Fun, and Fellowship!

Happy Anniversary

Congratulations to Kevin Boles on his 1 year staff anniversary as our Minister of Music, Outreach, and Missions!

New and Prospective Member Class Sunday, February 23

Are you a new or prospective member? Join us Sunday, February 23 from 5:30 – 7:00 P.M. for F.I.R.S.T. Step in the Fellowship Hall. Dinner and childcare will be provided. We began this class with two groups in mind; those who are our new members and those who are interested in knowing about membership at FBC. This is a non-threatening way for you to have an opportunity to ask questions as well as get to know the ministry staff and other members and worshippers.

Goals of F.I.R.S.T. Step:

- Orient you to the purpose, values, vision, and strategy of FBC Pineville
- Describe how membership can be meaningful at FBC Pineville
- Discuss what makes us who we are
- Introduce you to FBC Pineville Ministries & Staff
- Allow for a time of Q & A

If you are a prospective member, you will have an opportunity to join the church at the conclusion of the class.

Man Church Thursday, February 27

We will have guest speaker Keith Manuel, Director of Evangelism/Church Growth at Louisiana Baptists. We will meet in room 112 at 6:30 P.M. Wes Aguillard will be preparing a meal for us as well. Bring a friend and join us!

Monday, March 2 at Noon

We will have guest speaker Steve Horn, Executive Director for Louisiana Baptist Convention. RSVP to Lori Pruitt at lpruitt@fbcpineville.net. The cost is $10.00.

Together Tuesdays

Together Tuesdays Tuesday, March 3

If you are interested in volunteering for this initiative, please call or email Kimberly for specific times and locations. There are opportunities all day long at several schools. kaguillard@fbcpineville.net

Dear Church Family,
 We so appreciate your love, prayers, visits, and other kindness shown us during Edward's knee surgery and recovery in October and Linda's hospital stays in November. Thank you for doing life with us. We love and pray for FBC. Edward and Linda Futch

FBC Pineville,
 I wanted to tell all of you Thank You! I really appreciate each and every one of you for the prayers you said for my husband, Barnes Funderburk, during his illness even if you didn't meet him. I know he is with the Lord now. He was a good husband and a great father and now he is enjoying his daughter and her daughter who went before him.
 Thank You Again,
 Myra Funderburk
